SESSION FORMAT

Pre-recorded presentations will be made available as of 10 August to give all participants the opportunity to browse and watch different presentations at their own pace and convenience before the start of the live conference. The one-hour live sessions during the conference dates provide the opportunity to go more into depth during Q&As, discussions, exchange and collaborations.

EXHIBITOR GALLERY & CULTURAL EVENTS

Aside from the academic programme, there will be plenty of other activities as well. ICAS 12 will feature an online Asian Studies Exhibitor Gallery where publishers can showcase their new titles, institutes can inform participants about their latest activities, and connections can be established through text and video chat. There will also be a Film and Documentary Festival and much more!

CONNECT WITH OTHERS

Make your own personal programme in the Itinerary Planner, so you won't forget to join the live discussions on the topic you're interested in. During the one-hour live sessions each presenter will have 3-5 minutes to give a recap of their presentation, so there will be more time for longer discussions, exchange and questions.

After sessions, conversations can be continued in the networking lounge that can accommodate one-on-one, but also group conversations. Grab a drink while going to the networking lounge, got to stay hydrated!

ICAS 12 will offer creative workshops ranging from arts and crafts to cooking and more. Don't forget to take a photo of yourself for the ICAS 12 photo wall! Just as at in-person conferences, join in and share the fun!
